

Erie
by the Numbers

1670

individuals attended immigration legal consultations and over

12000

received legal representation

95%

of READS

summer program participants increased their reading scores, more than double the rate of peers who didn't attend and in stark contrast to typical reading score drops following summer break

1

new "bridge" classroom was opened to support students ages 5-7 as they transition out of preschool and into elementary school

100%

of our high school seniors were enrolled in post-secondary programs

91%

of Pre-K students were identified as "kindergarten ready" by the time they graduated from the program

261

Erie kids learned about super foods and the benefits of physical activity

1

new bicultural, bilingual therapist was hired to support a growing number of Ukrainian
families in childcare

DACA
applications,
renewal and
initial, were
submitted

382

353
students
were enrolled
in restorative
practice
principles
class

1693

people attended

187

CHA workshops

224

adult learners were paired with

150

volunteer community literacy tutors

49

Community Navigators
were equipped to lead

180

Know Your Rights trainings

153

participants engaged in advocacy issues relevant to them and their community