

BASIC CONCEPTS

For more than 70 years, thousands of people all over the world have been using the self-help method developed by neuropsychiatrist Abraham Low, M.D., to live more peaceful lives. The Low Self-Help Method is based on these important concepts.

Temper Has Two Faces

Angry Temper: The judgment that the	Fearful Temper: The judgment that I
other person is wrong or has wronged	am wron g.
me.
For example: irritation, resentment, impatience, hatred, disgust, rebellion	For example: worry, feeling of inadequacy, hopelessness, fear of damage to your reputation, sense of shame

Living a more peaceful life starts with learning to recognize signs and symptoms of temper, both angry and fearful.

Environment Has Two Sides

Outer (External) Environment: Everything outside yourself.	Inner (Internal) Environment: Everything inside yourself.
You can't control any of these: people, events, the past, the future.	You can't control these: feelings, sensations
	You can control these: thoughts, impulses

Realize what you cannot control. Concentrate on what you can control.

Use Your Will

You have the power to choose:

- How you are going to act.
- What you are going to think.

Focus on Everyday Events

Most things that upset us are the routine events in everyday life. Using the Low Self-Help Method helps us deal more positively and peacefully with the frustrations, challenges and upsets of daily living.

Practice Self-Endorsement

Give yourself a mental pat on the back for any effort:

- To spot and control your temper.
- To control your thoughts and impulses.
